

English Language Requirements for Admission Rule

Section 1 - Introduction

(1) This Rule establishes the University's English language requirements for admission, irrespective of the study location or study mode, for all students admitted to a UNE award or non-award unit, consistent with the requirements of the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) and the Provider Course Accreditation Standards under the Higher Education Standards Framework.

(2) In this Rule, the University sets a standard minimum English language requirement, but for specific courses it may set a higher minimum requirement, informed by the AQF Level and English language proficiency outcomes of that course.

(3) Any courses with a minimum English language requirement higher than the standard minimum requirement shall be detailed in the Annex to this Rule. This Rule must be read in conjunction with the English Language Requirements Higher than the University Minimum Requirement Annex.

Section 2 - Scope

(4) This Rule applies from the date of its publication. This Rule applies to:

- a. all Students at UNE and all institutions, domestic and international, with which UNE has a partnership arrangement under which UNE accepts responsibility for equity and quality of assessment, and
- b. all programs of study offered by the University.

Section 3 - Rule

GENERAL

(5) When an IELTS (International English Language Testing System), TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) or PTE (Pearson Test of English) score is used to demonstrate English proficiency, that score must have been attained within two years of the date of application for admission.

STANDARD MINIMUM ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT
